
University of SAN DIEGO 1984 WOMEN'S VOLLEYBALL

HEAD COACH JOHN MARTIN

John Martin has been the University of San Diego women's volleyball coach since the program's inception in 1975. In the 8 seasons John has been at USD the women have gone to post-season tournaments three times, including a 4th place finish in the AIAW Small College Nationals in 1976, and two 5th place finishes in the 1977 and 1978 WAIAW Regionals.

Under coach Martin's direction the USD volleyball program has grown from the Division II ranks to its current NCAA Division I status. The team's overall record in that time is 106-92.

John received both his B.A. and Master's Degree in History from San Diego State University. John, his wife Jane, daughter Eliza and son Patrick reside in Encinitas.

1984 USD VOLLEYBALL PROSPECTUS:

With seven returning players from the 1983 team and four promising newcomers, the Toreras hope to improve on last season's 9-14 mark. Again USD will face a challenging schedule, but coach John Martin hopes that his senior-laden lineup will fare well with the experience gained over the past few campaigns.

Five of the team's returnees started regularly last year and another made frequent starts, so Martin expects his team to be solid throughout, with good leadership from the six seniors on the 11-player roster, and a maturity that should help out in the close contests.

"We should also improve as far as consistency is concerned," Martin says. "Last year there would be major differences in our play from one match to the next. Player-wise, our real strength this year is our four strong, quick outside hitters."

Veronica Velez and Kim Crawford are the two seniors at that position, and will be joined by sophomore returnee Gina Trapletti and freshman Stephanie Van Haverbeke, a second-team All-Metro selection at St. Mary's Academy in Portland, OR, last year. Velez led the Toreras in almost all offensive statistical categories last season after transferring from Mesa Junior College.

Seniors Marcia McEvers, Michele Rehrig and Jill Bradley are the team's middle blockers, with Bradley a first-year player after competing in basketball for USD. Setter Cindy Wheat is set for a strong senior campaign, and will be joined at the position by freshman Kris Mitchell from Elk, CA. The club's defensive specialists are junior Ellen Silber and sophomore Loretta O'Connor, a newcomer from South Laguna Beach.

UNIVERSITY PROFILE

The University of San Diego is an independent, Catholic university located on a 170-acre mesa overlooking Mission Bay, San Diego Harbor, and the Pacific Ocean. The campus is named Alcala Park after the Spanish university town where St. Didacus (i.e., Diego) spent much of his time.

Complementing its splendid natural setting is the University's location just 10 minutes from downtown San Diego — conveniently close to the major business, cultural, residential, and recreational areas, as well as the rail, bus and air terminals.

Founded in 1949, USD is presently experiencing record attendance. Undergraduate enrollment stands at 3300, graduate students bring the overall campus enrollment to 5200.

The University includes a College of Arts and Sciences, and Schools of Business Administration, Education, Nursing, and Law. Each is characterized by high academic standards, small classes, and excellent student-faculty relations.

Though the majority of students come from the West Coast, every region of the United States is well-represented on campus. Students also attend USD from 24 foreign countries.

In women's intercollegiate sports, USD fields programs in basketball, cross-country, crew, softball, swimming, tennis and volleyball.
